Fierce Competitor!

Behind his schoolboy physique and ever-genial demeanor, lies the heart of a lion that has propelled Woody Deans into an elite group having won, not one, but two Summit MatchPlay Championships. But, as in Augusta that cool spring of 1987, with rampant speculation on an aging Jack’s chances of back-to-back victories, all eyes are upon this year’s Summit prize as, even now, questions begin to swirl about Deans’ continued ability to compete at the AAA level. Rumors of extreme diets and obsessive off-season morning workout regimens abound, but the most disconcerting allegation of all is that, for Deans, it’s all about the money.

“I grew up watching Jack Nicklaus. He was a great player. Jack couldn’t do it at 47. No offense, but Woody’s no Jack. How can he expect to be competitive at 60 or whatever he is?”

— Anonymous, Two-Time SMC Champion

“To me, old age is fifteen years older than I am.”
